FRIDAY EVENING, AUG. 3, 1900.

HIS RICHES TOOK WINGS. As stated in yesterday's Gazette having run the gamut from the palace of the millionaire to the box car of the hobo, Edward Loonard Dwyer, of Torrington, Conn., on Wednesday enlisted at Harrisburg, Pa., in the service of the United States as a humble private in the marines. Dwyer was at one time one of the biggest speculators in New York. He bought wheat by the 100, 000 tons and when he sold it lost heavily. In 1886 he astonished Unicaro by trying to corner wheat with a millionbusnel purchase, but again he lost. In 1895 he married the Duchesse de Castellucia, an American girl who mar-ried an Italian duke and returned to this country after the duke had died and left her $7,000,000. The marriage took place in Rock Ledge, Florida, and among the guests was Richard Croker, the Tammany boss.

When Dwyer's wife died she left him

$350,000 and a group of islands off the coast of Maine, which he sold for a large sum. In a short time his money was gone, and he was adjudged a bankrupt in New York in May, 1899. Then his worst troubles began, for he lost his friends. Last January he was active in promoting a scheme to open silver mines in Mexico, where he had formerly been a prosperous railroad builder, and there was $1,500,000 in sight, but the scheme fell through. Then Dwyer went to Portland, Ore, but a few weeks ago decided to come East. He got as far as Harrisburg, and was content to do laboring work to get food. This disgusted him, and yesterday he enlist-ed in the marines. He was taken with a squad of recruits to League Island, Philadelphia, yesterdsy evening.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my lit-tle daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she should die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daugh-ter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much sugering. Yours truly, Mrs. GEO. F. BURDICK, Liberty, R. I. For sale
